Description

We are pleased to offer for sale this lovely oil painting by the artist Prudence Turner, who has signed the painting in the lower left hand corner. The painting depicts a sunset view of a Scottish loch, with mountains in the background, down which a burn is flowing. There is a rocky area to the right of the painting with, below it, grass and heather covered slopes leading to the edge of the water. Unfortunately, on this occasion the artist has not given the location. - PRUDENCE TURNER Was born in Baluchistan in Pakistan of English parentage. She took to painting at an early age and entered a competition against much older children at the age of four. She lived in India, Pakistan, Egypt, France and the UK, always learning and painting. Her best works were her Scottish oils on canvas and were mostly painted while she visited Ballachulish near Glencoe. Since 1967, her works have been reproduced in print form. - FRAME The painting is newly framed in a 2" ornate gilt frame. It will be supplied wired and ready to hang. - FRAMED MEASUREMENTS Frame size: 27 1/4" x 23 1/4" - 54cm x 59cm - Medium: Oils on canvas - CONDITION Excellent condition with no repairs, craquelure, paint ...
