Description

Antique mahogany grill front marble top sideboard, dating from around the 1930's period, in good condition & with lots of storage inside. It's a very practical piece of furniture, because it's slim from back to front, so doesn't take up too much room. The marble top is original & does have a small chip on the back right corner, which we have shown in a blown up image. It's not that noticeable when looking at the whole piece. However it could be restored or marble replaced. Personally, I would just leave it. The two outside curved doors have flame mahogany panels. The middle door has a brass grill with a loose fabric behind. This is how we obtained this piece & if needed the fabric could be replaced or even fixed flat against the grill. The top edge has three satinwood inlaid flame mahogany panels & there are two turned columns between the doors. The base has a reeded edge & it sits on nicely turned feet. Width - 49 inches, 124 cm Depth - 16 inches, 40 cm Height - 33 inches, 85 cm
