Description

Antique gun metal chronograph pocket watch by Edouard Heuer. E Heuer & Co was founded in Saint-Imier, Switzerland in 1860. In 1985, the TAG group purchased a majority stake in the company thus forming TAG Heuer. This particular watch has a high grade 19 ligne chronograph movement, identified as being manufactured by Edouard Heuer, which is working nicely. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 51mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is gun metal and it is in good condition with just light surface discolouration in places but nothing serious at all. The glass lens is in good condition. The dial is in lovely condition. There are two subsidiary dials, one for constant seconds and the other records up to 30 minutes. The chronograph is operated by pressing the winding crown to start, again to stop and then again to re-set to zero. Pin-set hands. Edouard Heuer patented his first pocket watch chronograph in 1882 and his first wrist watch chronograph in 1914... the crown was at the 12 o'clock position as these first wrist watch chronographs were adapted from the pocket watch design. The watch will be sent in a ...
