Description

A lovely birds eye maple mirror dating from the late 19th Century. It is a small size with a thick cushioned style frame, veneered in beautiful Birds Eye Maple. It has its original mirror plate which is slightly foxed and worn in places but not detrimentally. It is in good original condition. There are some minor knocks and chips around the edges of the frame but nothing detrimental and it displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £25.
