Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A charming Victorian 17th century style oak side table. c.1890. Having a gate leg action, which turns the table from a triangular shaped table to square table, making it rather versatile. This design allows the table to be either placed flat to the wall or could be placed into a corner, or of course just free-standing. The table top has a very charming carved motif, in the 17th century style. Standing on finely turned supports, united by a square stretcher. The table is a dark oak colour with a rich, characterful patina. Very solid sturdy and strong. In excellent antique condition. Expected signs of age. The dimensions are. Height-71cm. Width when triangle-75cm. Depth when triangle-45cm. Width when square-53cm. Depth when square-53cm. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions about this item. VIEWING.
