Description

This traditional teak trunk dating from the 19th Century with shaped brass corner plates, brass escutcheon and iron carrying handles. The original lock is intact, but without a key. The condition of the trunk is good, the colour is deep and rich with a good patina. The interior, which bears the name of the original owner, is very clean and offers excellent storage. A very attractive and useful item to use as a coffee table, blanket box or to use for additional storage anywhere in the home. c.1870 Width: 34" (86cm) Depth: 18" (48cm) Height: 14.5" (37cm)
