Description

A pair of Biedermeier Satinwood Side Chairs, early 19th century, the slightly curved backs inlaid with burr-wood panels, with stuff-over seats and upon tapering square supports of curved outline. 85cm high, the seats 48cm wide at the front, 42cm deep and 49cm high. The chair seats have non-matching upholstery which I can have replaced by my upholsterer. I currently have a stock of the black and gold star embroidered fabric illustrated in one of the photographs which would complement the chairs very well. Please contact me for further details.
