Description

Fabulous 1930's Art Deco heavily figured walnut writing Bureau in the most wonderful shape. Not only does this great bureau look great its very functional too. The top opens up to reveal everything you need to rest a laptop or write a letter . Sectional areas to store letters and general paper work with working key. Below are four very generous sized drawers which run smoothly and retain their original bakelite handles. The woods used are of the highest quality and the overall style is typically Deco. This piece certainly wasn't made for the mass market. This piece comes to you in excellent condition having been lovingly restored by our team. Ready to be delivered. Height to drop down is 74 cm.
