Description

A superb 19th Century Regency period mahogany centre table on a finely carved rare and unusual base. English, Circa 1825. The circular flame mahogany book-match veneered tilt-top, raised upon a turned column with finely carved acanthus leaf base in addition to three scrolled supports, over a triform base, terminating on winged carved lion paw feet and recessed brass castors. This well drawn table, offered in excellent condition, has acquired a superb natural colour and patination. A fine example for any home or collection. Diameter 51 1/4 inches - 130cm Height 29 1/4 inches - 74.5cm
