Description

An extremely rare pair of folding scissors in a hallmarked silver case. These unusual and collectable examples are probably a campaign item, for use in the field. Campaign items were often ingeniously designed as space was at a premium. The silver case has a pull off lid and opens to reveal the steel scissors which fold down. A desirable and sought after item. Dimensions below. P&P contribution :- £8.00 UK £12.00 Worldwide Condition :- Very good. The scissors fold down pleasingly and have some age related scuff marks from use. The silver case has a couple of dimples, but closes well. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable set to body and part marks to lid. Date :- Birmingham 1923. Maker :- J C Vickery. Length :- 8.75 cms. (Case). Width :- 4 cms. (scissors open). Case width :- 1.2 cms.
