Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A very elegant and fine Regency chiffonier / side cabinet. c.1815. Made from rosewood, which has stunning rich figuring and contrasting colours to the timbers. The upper section having the original brass gallery-rail over brass supports. This section is ideal for books. Below is a two door cabinet having very attractive original cream/ light gold knot-pleated silk material to the door fronts, which then open to reveal a fully adjustable two shelved interior, giving many options of size. Above the doors of this beautifully constructed chiffonier is a very useful feature, having a pull-out writing surface, with a high quality cream leather writing surface. Quite an unusual feature and shows the quality of this elegant chiffonier. Working lock with the original key. Excellent antique condition. Solid, sturdy and strong. The dimensions are.
