Description

A fairly large old Scottish pine chest of drawers dating from the late Victorian period. There are two small drawers over three full width drawers, each with the original wooden knobs and pretty key escutcheons. Recently stripped of its original paint, exposing a clean and tidy bare wood ready for waxing or painting. The wavy underside and solid large feet are typically Scottish and of this time. An attractive chest of drawers in very good condition throughout. Height 45.5", width 41.5", depth 18"

Internal Ref: c3000d
