Description

A lovely Victorian farmhouse dining table set on thick turned legs. Original planked pine top with a smooth waxed finish and the original painted finish on the legs. One single drawer with turned knob. A very sturdy table and a nice small size to comfortably sit four. Good height to sit at with a leg clearance of 23 1/2" / 60cm all the way around. Good condition for its age. Many signs of age and use and marks on the top and the layers of paint on the legs have crackled and worn to create a wonderful patina. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. London £50.
