Description

Fine quality early C19th Regency period brass-inlaid rosewood chiffonier. Elegant Regency brass-inlaid and brass-mounted rosewood 2-door cabinet with mirror-inset back with shelves. The rosewood framed mirror back with decorative pierced gilt-brass three-quarter. The graduated shelves with brass string inlay and supported on well-cast brass column supports of classical design. The cabinet base with intricate cut-brass inlay to the frieze, the vertical uprights of the sides and the blocks. The frieze banded with a high-quality cast gilt-brass mount bead surround. The whole with brass-inlaid line stringing. The door panels fitted with replaced pleated material lining to replace and replicate the worn original. The doors fitted with a reeded brass vertical strip, brass escutcheon and working brass lock and key. The interior fitted with a baize covered shelf, ideal for storing glass, china or perhaps use as a drinks cabinet. The whole raised on original compressed bun feet. In superb original condition with a wonderful gently faded original colour and patina to the well-figured rosewood. No losses to the brass inlay. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops, re...
