Description

Very Large 19th Century Brass and Leather Club/Pub Fender. This is a grand piece of Country House Furniture, a mid 19th century piece which completely surrounds the fire with one large Black Leather upholstered seat. The base of the fender is in brass with a naturally aged patina, unusually it has fixings so that it can be screwed to the floor. The fender is in very good looking, sturdy condition and the leather is soft and also in good condition. The fender is 17" high, the depth is 22" and the length is 70" (Interior 60.5"x 17") JF22.
