Description

This attractive walnut dressing table dates from around 1900. It has the original cabinet furniture and is very clean and tidy, the top had some usage marking over the last 100 plus years so we have re French polished this to match the other original polish. The remainder has been cleaned and rewaxed and is in a condition you can put roght into use tomorrow if you wish. The mirror glass has some minor but reassuring foxing but is good and the mirror will pivot on the catches to set in the position that will be perfect for you. The sizes below are at table height but the overall is 158cms to the top of the mirror. A superb and useful item in lovely condition.
