Description

Very Large 19th Century Adams Style Gilt Over Mantle Wall Mirror The Mirror has a beautiful Rococo Gold Frame with three mirrors, at the top it is elaborately decorated with carved swags of leaves and Ribbons and a crest at the centre. The base of the mirror is flat so it may have originally been intended as an overmantel and it has a delightful waved inner edge and carved corner brackets. The large frame is in good sound condition, it has had some tiny repairs over the years but they are almost impossible to see, the looking glass too are in excellent condition. This is a charming piece of genuine English chic furnishing. The mirror is 77" wide, 48" high and about 4" in depth.
