Description

Good quality pair of mid 19th century French walnut bedside cabinets with white marble tops. These are a little bit better than many pairs you see around. The carcasses are all veneered on oak and the drawer is hand dovetailed with thick oak linings. The cabinets are made of walnut and walnut veneer with carved decoration and cabriole legs. They have their original brass handles. They are a proper pair with the doors opening in different directions. The cabinets are in very good condition with no damage and no repairs and the marbles are free from chips. SIZE; 16" square by 32 1/2" high CIRCA; 1850 - 1870
