Description

Fabulous late 18th.c. French oak cupboard dresser base c.1780. Two piece top with plate groove, moulded edge and sides which taper towards the rear edge. Over three drawers and a three door cupboard fitted with one long single piece shelf with a shaped cutaway to the right hand end. Exceptional decorative front with carved and moulded drawer fronts and doors all retaining the original steel handles, pierced escutcheon plates and hinges. Further carved detail to the front mullions plus a delightful inlaid detail in contrasting fruitwood timbers repeated on the centre door panel. Carved fruitwood front stiles, shaped and moulded apron with an inlaid heart motif at the centre. Oak panelled sides and two large pine backboards.
