Description

A lovely small mahogany drop-flap table dating from the mid 19th Century. It is set on turned legs with its original brass castors stamped "Cope Patent Strong". There is a single drawer at one end of the table and matching dummy drawer at the opposite end, both with brass knobs. The drop leaves are supported by small hinged wooden flaps. Width (closed) : 18" / 46cm Width (open) : 35 1/2" (90cm) It is in good original condition and displays very well. It is sturdy and in good order with a nice rich colour. The leaves are flat and easy to put up and the colour matches across all of the leaves. The drawer opens well and is clean and tidy inside but is missing its lock. There are some minor marks, signs of age and use and a small old chip along the fold of one flap but nothing detrimental. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use.
