Description

This French antique kingwood & rosewood bombe commode has some wonderful use of woods with beautiful figurings & it's full of character. It's in excellent condition, free from damage & dates from around the 1890's period. The rouge marble top is original & also in good condition. This commode has many exotic woods, especially within the floral marquetry panels on the sides. It also has gilt bronze mounts, handles & escutcheons. The drawers are finely dovetailed & are oak lined. This item is of nice small proportions & would look great as a wall piece in the hall or living room.
