Description

This Magnificent Walnut Desk made by the Queens cabinet makers that dates from the 1880's. The top has a newly fitted green leather inlay with blind and gold tooling that sits on three drawers that have useful dividers, which can be removed. Below are six more graduated drawers which sit in the two pedestals that have fluted columns and desirable panelled sides and back. * Jas Shoolbred was granted a Royal warrant by the mid-1880s and their Victorian furniture was of the best quality available of the late Victorian period.
