Description

Wonderful high quality 1930's Art Deco dressing table originating from England. This very glamorous dressing table really is a superb piece of furniture in both it's styling and craftsmanship. Features a huge mirror which is one of the largest we've ever seen on a dressing table and this works perfectly to give this dresser extra glam appeal but functionality. You're able to see yourself full height view, perfect when you're getting ready, every girl needs one of these! The base is walnut figured veneered with book paging and continues the shape from the mirror to create the overall circle. The open shelves provide an ideal space to display those special pieces that deserve centre stage, perhaps Art Deco perfume bottles, picture frames or any vintage pieces that will add a bit of glam. All of this comes to you in excellent condition having been newly restored and traditionally hand French polished by our onsite restorers.
