Description

Superb documented early C19th mahogany double-sided 'partners' desk by M. Willson, London. Well-proportioned free-standing pedestal desk, fitted 9 graduated drawers to one side and fitted 3 frieze drawers and cupboards to the opposing side. Excellent quality throughout, all the drawers with moulded edges, high quality mahogany linings and fitted with original turned knob pulls, brass locks and raised brass 'Bramah' type key escutcheons. The reverse panelled doors each enclosing a cupboard fitted with an original adjustable shelf. The pedestals each raised on castors beneath plinth bases. The moulded edge top with gently curved corners. The inset writing surface fitted with a top quality replacement tooled leather top (approximately 20 years old) which has achieved a wonderful aged and worn tan / green patination. The leather with rubbed and aged gold tooling, together with 'blind' tooling and Greek key pattern outer surround, separated into in 3 reserve panel sections. Some historic marks and stains to the leather, commensurate with age, use and purpose. The top frieze drawers to each side bearing the stamp of the renowned and esteemed London retailers "M. Wi...
