Description

This is an antique pair of Victorian merchant's trays. Two English oak boat trays dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900. Each tray displays grain interest and a desirable aged patina. Attractive wisps of medullary rays visible through the wax polished finish. Stout, rolled handles compliment each end. Full of rustic charm with an artisan feel. Ideal for keys or loose change. This pair of antique trays feature solid joints and construction and will be delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
