Description

A very fine and wonderfully decorated solid silver Victorian Porringer. The front features both engraving and repoussé work, featuring flowers and foliage and decorated with fluting around the lower quarter and has a rope fluted band near to the top. Two perfectly proportioned handles sit either side, and stands on one circular foot. Very clear hallmarks are visible on the back for the Sheffield Assay office with a date mark for 1896 and Lion Passant indicating the finest sterling silver. The silver maker's mark is also clearly visible for Charles Favell & Co. The inside of the porringer has a very pale lemony coloured gilt finish. A wonderful item - the fine quality of the silversmith is very evident! A good heavy gauge silver! Would make a wonderful Wedding present or Christening gift! Condition: In lovely antique collector's condition. Hallmarks and maker's marks: Sheffield 1896 by Charles Favell & Co. Measurements: Height: 9 cm approx. Width handle to handle: 15 cm approx. Depth: 9 cm approx. Weight: 181 grams approx.
