Description

Large size 18th century Georgian Scottish silver toddy ladle with whale bone handle. The oval shaped bowl with pouring spout is silver and beautifully engraved. The whale bone handle is a nice shape and colour with silver plated mounts. As with most of these Scottish toddy ladles the bowl is not hallmarked. This example with the engraving is just that little bit better than some. SIZE; 14" long. The bowl is 3" by 2". CIRCA; 1770 - 1790
