Description

William IV Scottish Flame Mahogany Sectaire Bookcase This is a piece of small proportions and would work well in a cottage, bedroom or anywhere space is limited. The bookcase is made with superbly matched veneers and delicate barley twist columns at either side topped with turned finials, and the knobs are in amber glass. The top is a glazed shelved bookcase, it has one fixed shelf and 2 stationary drawers beneath, below this we have a long drawer which is fitted with a writing slide which conceals a secret storage compartment and pen and ink well holders, and beneath this there is shelved cupboard. This piece is in very good condition, the Mahogany is of the finest quality, the tooled leather on the writing slope has been replaced and the secretaire comes with keys. The Sectaire bookcase is 64" high, 17" deep and 38" wide HT116.
