Description

For your consideration is this tall and very elegant and original Walther And Sohne amber glass table lamp, circa 1930's. Features female nude to create the column of the lamp with a segmented glass shade. The amber coloured glass in excellent condition and free from damage and gives off the most wonderful ambient lighting. These lamps are becoming increasingly hard to source. Condition is excellent, the brass gallery is as bright and crisp with little to no defects, likewise with the glass. Ideal to use as focal point for any room.
