Description

Early 19th Century Oak Joint or Coffin Stool. This is a good Oak Joint or Joined Stool often these came in pairs and were originally intended to be used in the family home at sad time of a funeral hence the name. This is a good solid stool, with a good colour and with a lovely patina, it has blacksmith made nails on the top and would make a great occasional stool, or even a small side table. The stool is 24" high, 18" wide and 10" deep. JF82.
