Description

An extremely rare mid 19th Century Refectory Farmhouse Kitchen Dining Table. French in origin and made from Solid Oak. The top has 2 long side flaps which flip over to double the width of the table top, a great feature and lovely hand forged hinges set into the top. The base has nice baluster turned legs united by stretchers. We have bleached this table to give it a more modern look but can be waxed to any shade is so desired. A very rare table indeed and a real talking/focal point for the room. In excellent condition. Length 180 cm Depth Closed 42 cm Depth Open 83 cm Height 74 cm
