Description

GILLOWS of LANCASTER: a superb quality late Regency or Victorian CHIFFONIER in particularly fine condition dating circa 1835-45. With beautifully-figured veneers used throughout, the many features include upper shelf and shaped mid-shelf supported on turned uprights and twin "flame" mahogany panelled doors flanked by stylised columns and carved corbels. These doors open to reveal two shelves (making three in total) and it is supported on fine compressed bun feet. Ideal as a sideboard or perhaps a hall piece. Dimensions: 42ins wide; 56.5ins high (overall); 17ins deep. This is a spectacular and well above average quality example!
