Description

A very attractive and decorative Antique Royal Worcester porcelain small ewer or jug with beautiful hand painted floral decoration on a blush ivory background. This lovely Royal Worcester decorative jug dates from 1909 during the Edwardian era. The jug stands 4 3/8ths inches high and weighs 103g. It has a very attractive ewer type shape with an ornate reeded gilded handle with decorative terminals. The base has the purple printed Royal Worcester mark with the year dots for 1909. There is also a registered number, 29115 and the shape number, 1094. The hand painted decoration features beautiful floral sprays - a larger one on the front including daisies and forget-me-nots. The jug is in very good condition throughout and would make a lovely addition to any collection.
