Description

Large Pair of 19th Century French Brass Church Candelabra, This is a superb Pair of Brass Fixed Candelabra, they would have original been fixed to a rail, perhaps on a stair way or Balcony. The candlesticks have a curved shape sweeping round as they rise in height, the centre is filled with cast brass decoration in swirls and leaves. The Candelabra are made in solid brass and each have 7 candle sconces with drip saucers, this is a very elaborate piece and may well have come from a very grand residence or a church, there are small fixing points on the base of each. The candelabra are, 20" high at the high end, 37" long and about 24" at the widest point.
