Description

Antique Victorian Oak Roll Top Desk and dating from around 1880. Constructed from quality solid oak it has a polished top with tambor front with brass escutcheon and working key. The tambor top opens to reveal assorted pigeon holes and letter racks with four small drawers with original brass labelling handles. It has a superb tiger oak writing surface with fabulous grain to the solid oak. There is a single drawer above the panelled knee hole with shaped frieze and to each pedestal there are four graduating drawers all of which are oak lined and with original oak handles. It is raised on a plinth base on castors. The desk has field panels to the sides and back making it suitable for freestanding and the top separates from the base for ease of transporting. MEASURES: 50" HIGH X 31.5" DEEP X 49.5" WIDE AND KNEE HEIGHT 26.5 AND DESK HEIGHT 31" With a lovely deep colour and patination and oozing all the charm and character of the period.
