Description

Oil on canvas in gilt frame. A spirited and honest portrait by a very competent artist strongly influenced by Kneller. Sir Godfrey Kneller (1646-1723) was the dominant court and Society portraitist of his age, becoming Principal Painter to the King in 1688. His influence on English portraiture was profound, continuing long after his death. Provenance: a Somerset private collection. Size: 32 x 28.5 inches inc. frame.
