Description

A unusual and rare silver cigar cutter with added pen knife facility. This charming piece made by the great Sampson Mordan has a body of ribbed silver. The steel bladed cutter sits neatly in the case and is spring loaded to cut the cigar. Once rotated, the cutter turns into a useful pen knife. The hallmarked silver attaching ring is also of unusual design, featuring a patent number to the side and a lovely clasp system. A good usable and collectable piece. Dimensions below. Postage and Packing :- £8.00 UK £16.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent with no dents or splits. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Full marks to both sides of the body and to the attaching ring. Date :- London 1893 & Birmingham 1904. Maker :- Sampson Mordan & N.C Reading and Co. Length closed - with attaching ring :- 10 cms. Width of cutter - widest point :- 2 cms.
