Unusual 19th century small size campaign oak chest of drawers in good original condition. 5 drawers which are all beautifully dovetailed and all pine lined. The drawers retain their original handles locks and escutcheons. The chest has its original brass carrying handles to the sides and its original hidden castors to the base. The chest has a nice moulding around the top with a small plinth to the base. The back is finished oak also. Would make a great bedside chest due to its size.
