Description

An elegant George III Chippendale period mahogany breakfront china cabinet: the glazed upper section with a central arched door flanked by a pair of doors each with geometric bullnose astragal glazing. The cabinet is raised on its original stand which has a frieze decorated with blind fretwork and incorporating a central drawer and stands on square tapering legs terminating in block feet. This Chippendale cabinet retains a superb colour and patination. For more information on Thomas Chippendale please read Reindeer Antique's blog on Chippendale's 300th Anniversary.
