Description

A rare Baker, Bevans & Irwins, Glamorgan Pottery 'Rural Series' Jug, circa 1820, of lobed baluster form with moulded foliate decoration, printed in black with scenes. Black printed mark 'B.B & I Opaque China' stamp to the base. In excellent condition with no damage or repairs. The Glamorgan Pottery in Swansea, Wales, began in 1813. During the 1820's it had a certain amount of success producing all kinds of printed and hand-painted creamware and pearlware, however by 1830 it's fortunes were in decline and finally ceased trading in 1838.
