Description

This is an antique tilt-top table. An English, Victorian, oak side, lamp or card table dating to the mid 19th century, circa 1850. Select oak with consistent colour and tone, and a desirable aged patina. Appealing grain interest displaying wisps of medullary rays. Versatile with timeless styling and attractive proportions. Tilting top locks firmly into place at a height of 71cm (27.9 inches). Robust, tapering, turned pillar offers firm support for the tabletop. Classic tripod base showing Regency influence to the sweeping leg form. This is a versatile, antique tilt-top table. Solid joints and construction and delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
