Description

Gents 1930s 14ct gold Pinnacle Art Deco wrist watch by Record. Record registered the brand name Pinnacle in 1913. The watch has a Swiss 15 jewel hand-winding movement which is working nicely. On the photos, you might notice two empty screw holes. These are for retaining screws but, in this instance, they are not required as the fitted case is designed to retain the movement. The watch measures 23mm wide excluding the winding crown and 32mm high excluding the lugs. The case is 14ct gold and there are Continental hallmarks to the back of the watch. The case is in lovely condition, just a little light scratching to the back but nothing too serious. The convex lens is in good condition. The signed dial is in beautiful condition and appears to have been professionally re-finished at some stage. Breguet style hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and an inner minute track. A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch comes in a vintage presentation box from a London jeweller.
