Description

18th century George III mahogany tilt top tripod table. The square top with rounded edge tilts so as to form a diamond which is slightly unusual. Very nice design base with carved column and lovely shape legs with pad feet. The table is all original with original under-bearers and brass catch. The table is in very good condition apart from the top has been re-polished in Edwardian times. Useful size. SIZE; 24" square by 28" high CIRCA; 1770 - 1780
