Description

A beautiful example of a Edwardian English pine dressing chest, with a swivelling mirror. Either side of the mirror are jewellery drawers. The base consists of two small drawers over two large full width drawers, each with its very attractive, ornate, brass drop handle. The original feet are very nice looking and in excellent order - a rare find in such old pieces. In very good condition for its age, all the drawers are running smoothly. Was originally painted, but has been recently stripped and professionally wax polished. The mirror can be removed for delivery. Total height: 60", surface height: 32", width: 37", depth: 19"
