Description

Gents silver Cyma wrist watch from J W Benson, 1932. The watch has a Cyma 15-jewel stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The watch is a good size at 35mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the fixed wire lugs. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the case back for Glasgow (import mark), 1932, with an importer's mark for J W Benson. The case is a good solid case with screw on bezel and case back which is always a nice sign of quality. The case is in good condition for such an early piece, general light surface marks but nothing too serious at all. The watch glass is in good condition. The signed white enamel dial has a few hairline cracks radiating out from the centre. Originally there would have been painted detail to the hands and the numbers but this has been removed over the years. A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch will be sent in a new presentation box. J W Benson originated in 1847, founded by James William Benson and Samuel Suckley Benson. They were regarded as one of Victorian London's most prestigious retail jewellers and they also manufactured their own watch movements. The company flourished and proudly boasted an ...
