Description

A superb Victorian writing desk dating from the mid to late 19th century. It is a stylish piece with an overhanging top with pierced fretwork brackets. It has a single drawer with turned knobs and is set on tapering turned legs and brass castors. The top has an inset green leather writing surface with gold tooled edging. It is a nice compact size, perfect as a side table or as a desk with ample leg clearance of 24" / 61cm. The desk is in very good condition. It is generally clean and tidy throughout and the leather surface is in good order. The drawer opens well and the desk moves well on its castors. There are normal signs of light wear and age and a few small old repairs to cracks in the fretwork but nothing detrimental and the desk displays beautifully and is ready for use.
