Description

A WWII Aldis lamp on Military stand, The lamp has been polished and rewired to modern domestic requirements, and fitted with a led bulb. PAT tested. The military wood stand has both brass and bronze fittings, and a contemporary repair. Stamped 1939. It has height adjustment, and additional stays have been provided. Lamp mounted sideways. The measurements below are the maximum height and splay of the legs. On off inline switch replaces disconnected trigger on handset, while mirror angle adjuster still operates. Additional photographs and information available on request. FaceTime facility available. Please be aware that the item is old and antique and study any photographs to satisfy yourself as to its condition as much as possible. While we take all efforts to provide something that is fit for the use intended there may be various condition issues that are commensurate with age and considered part of its history, and are very subjective. However, you have legal rights and Consumer Contract Regulations (2014) still apply for "Distance Selling" if this is not a "face-to-face" purchase. Carriage can be arranged at extra cost, estimated at between £100 and £150 to address...
