Description

Massive oak refectory table top of impressive size (and weight!) c.1820. For use with trestles (not supplied), very nearly 7'8" long, big enough to seat 10 people easily. Four 1¾" thick solid oak boards with cleated ends and further secured with long iron bolts. Presented as found, very solid and sturdy with a lovely pale colour revealing the grain and rays in the timber. Dimensions: length 91½", width 36", thickness 1¾".
