Description

A 1920s Record Dreadnought half hunter pocket watch. The watch has a Swiss stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is stamped Record, 17 jewels, Swiss made. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 50.6mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is gold plated and is the Star model by the English watch case maker Aaron Dennison. The case has some surface marks from use and a small "ding" to the outer edge of the back although hardly noticeable but overall it is in nice condition for a 1920s piece. The back cover has monogrammed initials. The front cover has a small lens surrounded by enamel filled Roman numerals. The front cover is opened by pressing the winding crown in. The winding crown pushes down to open the front cover. It reveals a white enamel dial with a glass lens which is in nice condition. The signed double sunk dial is in nice condition. The watch has its original blued steel hands including the special half hunter hour hand so the time can be read when the front cover is closed. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
