Description

Iconic Art Deco design, fabulous sterling silver Cigarette Box. This rectangular box has an unusually shaped lid which is decorated with a handsome engine turned pattern. There is an empty cartouch in the centre of the lid. When the hinged lid is opened, a wooden interior is revealed comprising of two compartments. The base of the box has a leatherette finish within the silver frame. Hallmarks are visible on the front of the box for the Sheffield Assay Office with a date mark of 1929 and Lion Passant Indicating the finest sterling silver. The maker's mark is also visible for the silversmith: James Dixon & Sons Ltd. Although made to hold Cigarettes, this handsome Box would be lovely for Jewellery or Trinkets. Condition: In very good antique condition (there are some very small minor surface dings to the silver sides, commensurate with age and mentioned for accuracy only not noticeable unless examined closely). Measurements: Height: 5.3 cm approx. Width: 17.8 cm approx. Depth: 9.5 cm approx. Weight: 516 grams approx.
